

I am writing to express my deep concern regarding the FCC's possible deregulation of the television/broadcast industry. It is my fear that this would only allow more consolidation by the ruling media conglomerates, stifle competition, homogenize the news, and place the power of information in the hands of a few.

I ask that the FCC vote against this deregulation. Thank you.